

PENTICTON OUTDOORS CLUB – GROUP EVENT RELEASE OF LIABILITY, WAIVER & ASSUMPTION OF RISK

READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING

I recognize and acknowledge that participating in a Penticton Outdoors Club activity involves hazards and risk of injury, including but not limited to hazardous terrain, sudden weather change, and other dangers associated with mountain travel.

By my signature I agree to assume and accept all risks, dangers and hazards associated with my participation in this activity. I also agree for myself, my heirs, my executors, administrators and assigned to forever discharge the Penticton Outdoors Club, its Officers, Agents, Organizers, Coordinators and Members from any lawsuit or actions, claims or demands that may arise from my participation in a Penticton Outdoors Club activity, notwithstanding that the same may have been contributed to or occasioned by the negligence of the Penticton Outdoors Club.

~~~~~

|                                                                     |                                                                     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Is there a cell phone present on the hike? Circle one Yes No | Are there new members on the hike? Circle one Yes (#____) No |
| Is there a first aid kit present on the hike? Yes No                | Are there guests on the hike? Yes (#____) No                        |
| Was a hike reconnaissance completed? Yes No                         | If Yes indicate the #                                        |

Activity Destination: _____ Date: _____

Careful review of the above Release of Liability, Waiver & Assumption of Risks and the addition of an emergency contact number are required by all participants prior to departure.

| #  | Participant Names | Member Ph | Emergency Contact Ph | Signature Confirms Acceptance of The Waiver Terms & Conditions |
|----|-------------------|-----------|----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1  | Activity Leader   |           |                      |                                                                |
| 2  |                   |           |                      |                                                                |
| 3  |                   |           |                      |                                                                |
| 4  |                   |           |                      |                                                                |
| 5  |                   |           |                      |                                                                |
| 6  |                   |           |                      |                                                                |
| 7  |                   |           |                      |                                                                |
| 8  |                   |           |                      |                                                                |
| 9  |                   |           |                      |                                                                |
| 10 |                   |           |                      |                                                                |
| 11 |                   |           |                      |                                                                |
| 12 |                   |           |                      |                                                                |

Following conclusion of the activity, please forward this completed form to the Club Director of Trails for review and subsequent filing with the Club Secretary. February 23, 2023 Version

